E. EVALUATION CRITERIA

1. In the evaluation of applications of foreign candidates to graduate programs where the language of instruction is Turkish, candidates are included in the ranking of the relevant program by taking into account 70% of their undergraduate graduation grade for master's programs, 70% of their master's graduation grade for doctoral programs, and 30% of their Turkish language/proficiency exam grade. Candidates who do not have a Turkish proficiency certificate accepted by the relevant institute's board of directors will have their

Turkish language/proficiency exam score considered as 0 (zero) in the ranking.

2. Applications of the candidates applying to graduate programs are evaluated based on the success score formed according to the principles outlined in the above (Article 1), and candidates are ranked from highest to lowest according to their success scores, as determined by the institute board within the specified quota. Candidates are determined as primary and reserve based on their success scores.

F. OTHER MATTERS

1. For the admission of foreign students to postgraduate programs, ALES and Foreign Language scores are not required.
2. The Turkish Language Exam (Turkish Proficiency Exam) is conducted by a three-member jury appointed by the Institute Administrative Board or by a unit it deems appropriate. To be considered successful in this exam and to be able to start classes, it is required to score at least 70 out of 100. Students who fail the exam are granted a one-year leave to learn Turkish. Students who do not pass the Turkish language exam, which will be conducted in the same manner within 1 year, will have their affiliation with the institute terminated. Candidates who possess a Turkish language proficiency certificate accepted by the relevant institute's board of directors are exempt from the Turkish language exam.
3. Candidates applying for doctoral programs must possess a master's degree recognized as equivalent by YÖK in the relevant department.
4. The registration of foreign students who are granted the right to enroll is carried out at the relevant institute, and their student affairs are initiated. These students are required to submit the equivalency documents of the higher education institution they graduated from to YÖK until their graduation. Otherwise, the students' graduation procedures will not be carried out, and at the end of the maximum period, their affiliation with our institute will be terminated.
5. If the documents specified in the conditions are incomplete, the application will not be evaluated.
6. Candidates who have not entered the Republic of Turkey through legal means or do not have the right to stay legally will not be registered, even if they have been placed in any department.

G. CONDITIONS FOR FINAL REGISTRATION

Students who have been granted the right to enroll in our institute's graduate programs must send the following documents, in addition to the required documents for the application, to our institute's email address bayu_lisansustu@bayburt.edu.tr.
